Section 1: What to expect...

You are about to join a Psychedelic Integration Group meeting ("the Group"), which provides a supportive space for individuals seeking to incorporate their past psychedelic experiences into their daily lives. It is crucial to understand that participation in this Group is not a form of therapy or medical treatment. The Group is purely educational and is not a substitute for professional mental health care or medical advice. By participating in this Group, you agree to the following terms:

- Legality: The Group does not endorse or facilitate the cultivation, sale, or distribution of illegal substances. For legal access to psychedelic medicines, you should contact your General Practitioner (GP), who can refer you to an appropriate psychedelic-prescribing psychiatrist.
- Scope: The Group offers peer support, education, and discussions on topics related to psychedelic experiences, integration, and personal development. Our facilitators are not licensed therapists or medical professionals. We do not diagnose, treat, or prescribe medication for any mental health or medical condition.
- Confidentiality and Privacy: Participants are encouraged to respect the confidentiality and privacy of others. Information shared during sessions should remain confidential. However, absolute confidentiality cannot be guaranteed in a group setting. All electronic recording devices must be turned off during sessions.
- Self-Responsibility: Participants are responsible for their own well-being and decision-making. Engage in self-care practices and seek professional help if necessary. The Group does not assume any responsibility for actions or outcomes resulting from participation in our sessions. By participating, you assume all liabilities related to any incident that may occur as a result of this experience.
- Non-Judgmental Attitudes: Participants are required to maintain an environment free from criticism or bias, fostering a space where everyone can share their thoughts and feelings without fear. This promotes a culture of acceptance and understanding.

Participating in the Group acknowledges that you have read, understood, and agreed to these terms and conditions. If you do not agree with any part of this Participation Agreement, you should not participate in the Group.

Section 2: Agreement

I have carefully read and fully understand the statements outlined in Section 1 of this document. Consequently, I comprehend the risks and benefits of participating in the Group. I acknowledge that my decision to participate is voluntary and entirely my responsibility. Therefore, I hereby waive any rights to pursue liability claims against the organizer or any member of the Group. Furthermore, I have been given the opportunity to ask questions, and they have been satisfactorily addressed.
